The Clark Pieper Character Development Award given to Elizabeth Thorley

Rochester, NY- Elizabeth A. Thorley, MS, CFP[®], CLU, a partner with Crossbridge Financial Group LLC, recently received the prestigious Clark Pieper Character Development Award at the Southeast YMCA June board meeting.

Bobbie Gardiner, Campaign Development Director for the Southeast YMCA and presenter of the award stated: "Elizabeth not only is a model board member, she is also an engaged parent of two children, a partner with Crossbridge Financial Group and serves on other boards. She is truly a Woman of the New Millennium."

The Clark Pieper Character Development Award is given to the board member who best displays the four character development qualities the YMCA teaches: caring, honesty, respect and responsibility. This award was first given in 1998, the year the YMCA instituted Character Development
